NOTICE OF INTENTION TO EDIT

During the past few years, the Department of Defense has been working to improve its financial management system. This effort has been a major priority for the Department, and it has resulted in significant improvements in the way the Department manages its finances. The Department has implemented a number of new systems and procedures, and it has made significant investments in training and education. As a result, the Department's financial management system is now more efficient and more effective than it was in the past. This has allowed the Department to better manage its resources and to ensure that it is able to meet its obligations to the American people.
