THEORY OF THE EARTH

CHAPTER I. OF THE ORIGIN OF THE EARTH.

The first question which presents itself to the mind is, what was the origin of the earth? and the answer to this question is, that it was created by the power of God, out of nothing, at the beginning of time.

And the second question is, what was the state of the earth at first?

The answer to this question is, that it was in a state of confusion, and darkness, and void, and that it was not yet formed into its present shape.

And the third question is, how long did it take God to create the earth?

The answer to this question is, that it took him six days.

And the fourth question is, what was the state of the earth at the end of the six days?

The answer to this question is, that it was in a state of perfection, and that it was now ready to receive the inhabitants which God had created.

And the fifth question is, what was the first inhabitant of the earth?

The answer to this question is, that it was Adam, the first man, who was created by God.

And the sixth question is, what was the first language spoken by Adam?

The answer to this question is, that it was the language of heaven, which was the language of God.

And the seventh question is, what was the first sin committed by Adam?

The answer to this question is, that it was the sin of disobedience, when he ate of the forbidden fruit.

And the eighth question is, what was the punishment of Adam for his sin?

The answer to this question is, that he was driven out of the garden of Eden, and that he was condemned to live in a state of misery and sorrow.

And the ninth question is, what was the first sin committed by Eve?

The answer to this question is, that it was the sin of disobedience, when she ate of the forbidden fruit.

And the tenth question is, what was the punishment of Eve for her sin?

The answer to this question is, that she was condemned to live in a state of misery and sorrow, and that she was to bear children in pain.

And the eleventh question is, what was the first sin committed by the serpent?

The answer to this question is, that it was the sin of temptation, when he tempted Eve to eat of the forbidden fruit.

And the twelfth question is, what was the punishment of the serpent for his sin?

The answer to this question is, that he was condemned to live in a state of misery and sorrow, and that he was to crawl on his belly.

And the thirteenth question is, what was the first sin committed by the serpent?
