

NEW MEXICO OIL CONSERVATION COMMISSION

Santa Fe, New Mexico

MISCELLANEOUS NOTICES

Submit this notice in triplicate to the Oil Conservation Commission or its proper agent before the work specified is to begin. A copy will be returned to the sender on which will be given the approval, with any modifications considered advisable, or the rejection by the Commission or its agent, of the plan submitted. The plan as approved should be followed, and work should not begin until approval is obtained. See additional instructions in the Rules and Regulations of the Commission.

Indicate nature of notice by checking below:

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO TEST CASING SHUT-OFF		NOTICE OF INTENTION TO SHOOT OR CHEMICALLY TREAT WELL
NOTICE OF INTENTION TO CHANGE PLANS		NOTICE OF INTENTION TO PULL OR OTHERWISE ALTER CASING
NOTICE OF INTENTION TO REPAIR WELL	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	NOTICE OF INTENTION TO PLUG WELL
NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DEEPEN WELL

Hobbs, New Mexico

Place

February 6, 1940

Date

OIL CONSERVATION COMMISSION,
Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Gentlemen:

Following is a notice of intention to do certain work as described below at the

Shell Oil Company, Inc. State "N" Well No. 1 in N/2 of SE/4
 Company or Operator Lease of Sec. 6, T. 21S, R. 36E, N. M. P. M., Eunice Field, Lea County.

FULL DETAILS OF PROPOSED PLAN OF WORK

FOLLOW INSTRUCTIONS IN THE RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE COMMISSION

It is proposed to set a gas packer at 3820 feet in order to remedy excessive volume of gas.

FEB 7 - 1940

Approved _____, 19____
 except as follows:

Shell Oil Company, Inc.

Company or Operator

By

C. C. Hull

Position

District Engineer

Send communications regarding well to

Name

C. P. Bristol

Address

Dr. 1457

Hobbs, N. Mex.

OIL CONSERVATION COMMISSION,

By

Roy Yarrrough

Title

OIL &amp; GAS INSPECTOR

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud.

2. The second part of the document outlines the specific procedures for recording transactions. It details the steps involved in the accounting process, from the initial entry of data into the system to the final review and approval of the records.

3. The third part of the document discusses the role of the accounting system in the overall management of the organization. It highlights how accurate records provide valuable information for decision-making and for the monitoring of the organization's performance.

4. The fourth part of the document addresses the challenges associated with maintaining accurate records. It identifies common sources of error and provides strategies for minimizing these errors, such as the use of standardized procedures and regular audits.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of training and education for the personnel responsible for maintaining the records. It emphasizes that ongoing training is necessary to ensure that the staff is up-to-date on the latest accounting practices and technologies.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the role of the accounting system in the overall management of the organization. It highlights how accurate records provide valuable information for decision-making and for the monitoring of the organization's performance.

7. The seventh part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud.

8. The eighth part of the document outlines the specific procedures for recording transactions. It details the steps involved in the accounting process, from the initial entry of data into the system to the final review and approval of the records.

9. The ninth part of the document discusses the role of the accounting system in the overall management of the organization. It highlights how accurate records provide valuable information for decision-making and for the monitoring of the organization's performance.

10. The tenth part of the document addresses the challenges associated with maintaining accurate records. It identifies common sources of error and provides strategies for minimizing these errors, such as the use of standardized procedures and regular audits.

11. The eleventh part of the document discusses the importance of training and education for the personnel responsible for maintaining the records. It emphasizes that ongoing training is necessary to ensure that the staff is up-to-date on the latest accounting practices and technologies.

12. The twelfth part of the document discusses the role of the accounting system in the overall management of the organization. It highlights how accurate records provide valuable information for decision-making and for the monitoring of the organization's performance.

13. The thirteenth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud.

14. The fourteenth part of the document outlines the specific procedures for recording transactions. It details the steps involved in the accounting process, from the initial entry of data into the system to the final review and approval of the records.

15. The fifteenth part of the document discusses the role of the accounting system in the overall management of the organization. It highlights how accurate records provide valuable information for decision-making and for the monitoring of the organization's performance.

16. The sixteenth part of the document addresses the challenges associated with maintaining accurate records. It identifies common sources of error and provides strategies for minimizing these errors, such as the use of standardized procedures and regular audits.

17. The seventeenth part of the document discusses the importance of training and education for the personnel responsible for maintaining the records. It emphasizes that ongoing training is necessary to ensure that the staff is up-to-date on the latest accounting practices and technologies.

18. The eighteenth part of the document discusses the role of the accounting system in the overall management of the organization. It highlights how accurate records provide valuable information for decision-making and for the monitoring of the organization's performance.

19. The nineteenth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud.

20. The twentieth part of the document outlines the specific procedures for recording transactions. It details the steps involved in the accounting process, from the initial entry of data into the system to the final review and approval of the records.

21. The twenty-first part of the document discusses the role of the accounting system in the overall management of the organization. It highlights how accurate records provide valuable information for decision-making and for the monitoring of the organization's performance.

22. The twenty-second part of the document addresses the challenges associated with maintaining accurate records. It identifies common sources of error and provides strategies for minimizing these errors, such as the use of standardized procedures and regular audits.

23. The twenty-third part of the document discusses the importance of training and education for the personnel responsible for maintaining the records. It emphasizes that ongoing training is necessary to ensure that the staff is up-to-date on the latest accounting practices and technologies.

24. The twenty-fourth part of the document discusses the role of the accounting system in the overall management of the organization. It highlights how accurate records provide valuable information for decision-making and for the monitoring of the organization's performance.

25. The twenty-fifth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud.

26. The twenty-sixth part of the document outlines the specific procedures for recording transactions. It details the steps involved in the accounting process, from the initial entry of data into the system to the final review and approval of the records.

27. The twenty-seventh part of the document discusses the role of the accounting system in the overall management of the organization. It highlights how accurate records provide valuable information for decision-making and for the monitoring of the organization's performance.

28. The twenty-eighth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud.

29. The twenty-ninth part of the document outlines the specific procedures for recording transactions. It details the steps involved in the accounting process, from the initial entry of data into the system to the final review and approval of the records.

30. The thirtieth part of the document discusses the role of the accounting system in the overall management of the organization. It highlights how accurate records provide valuable information for decision-making and for the monitoring of the organization's performance.

31. The thirty-first part of the document addresses the challenges associated with maintaining accurate records. It identifies common sources of error and provides strategies for minimizing these errors, such as the use of standardized procedures and regular audits.

32. The thirty-second part of the document discusses the importance of training and education for the personnel responsible for maintaining the records. It emphasizes that ongoing training is necessary to ensure that the staff is up-to-date on the latest accounting practices and technologies.

33. The thirty-third part of the document discusses the role of the accounting system in the overall management of the organization. It highlights how accurate records provide valuable information for decision-making and for the monitoring of the organization's performance.

34. The thirty-fourth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud.

35. The thirty-fifth part of the document outlines the specific procedures for recording transactions. It details the steps involved in the accounting process, from the initial entry of data into the system to the final review and approval of the records.