This is another one of those changes like we had last week. I am sorry I did not get this one included with those. I had set it aside to check on the transporter since it is listed in the gas schedule under Texaco Producing Inc. Our records show EPG and I looked at the TPI C-111 and did not find this well listed. You may have a better idea than I do. Let me know if it should be TPI instead of EPG.
