FEDERATION DEPARTMENT

Dear Sirs:

I am pleased to inform you that the Continental Oil Company has been selected to supply the oil requirements of the United States Navy for the year 1941.

The Continental Oil Company is a subsidiary of the Standard Oil Company, and is one of the largest oil companies in the United States.

We are pleased to have been selected to supply the oil requirements of the United States Navy, and we are confident that we will be able to meet the requirements of the Navy in the most efficient and economical manner possible.

We are also pleased to have been selected to supply the oil requirements of the United States Army, and we are confident that we will be able to meet the requirements of the Army in the most efficient and economical manner possible.

We are also pleased to have been selected to supply the oil requirements of the United States Coast Guard, and we are confident that we will be able to meet the requirements of the Coast Guard in the most efficient and economical manner possible.

We are also pleased to have been selected to supply the oil requirements of the United States Marine Corps, and we are confident that we will be able to meet the requirements of the Marine Corps in the most efficient and economical manner possible.

Yours very truly,

W. A. JAMES
Division Superintendent

Enclosed for you are two copies of the contract which has been entered into between the Continental Oil Company and the United States Navy for the year 1941. One copy of the contract is also being furnished to the United States Army, and one copy is being furnished to the United States Coast Guard, and one copy is being furnished to the United States Marine Corps.

We are confident that the Continental Oil Company will be able to meet the requirements of the United States Navy, United States Army, United States Coast Guard, and United States Marine Corps in the most efficient and economical manner possible.
