November 26th, 1935.

Mr. Neville G. Penrose,
Fair Building,
Ft. Worth, Texas.

Dear Sir:

This letter is to call your attention to various requirements of the New Mexico Oil Conservation Commission which you have not complied with.

Under separate cover, we are mailing you copy of Circular 1 of the Commission and a supply of forms for your use. Please note that all the requirements given in circular 1 must be satisfied.

It will be necessary for you to file immediately with the Commission a surety company bond in the amount of $5000.00 for this well as provided for in rule 39 of Circular 1 on pages 28 and 29.

Enclosed are copies of a form of bond which will meet with the approval of this office.

To date we have received from you only Form SG 101 "Notice of Intention to Drill New Well" for this well.

Very truly yours,

OIL CONSERVATION COMMISSION
