REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON THE PROGRESS OF THE WORK DURING THE YEAR 1900

Presented to the Board of Directors at the Annual Meeting held at the Hotel New York, New York, on the 15th day of December, 1900.

ALBANY, N. Y.: J. B. LIPPINCOTT COMPANY, 1901.

THE CONSERVATION COMMISSION was organized on the 1st day of January, 1895, under the provisions of Chapter 108 of the Laws of 1894, which provided for the establishment of a commission to study and report upon the best means for the conservation of the natural resources of the State.

The Commission has since that time been engaged in a study of the various natural resources of the State, and has held numerous public hearings and has received many suggestions from the people of the State. It has also conducted extensive investigations into the various problems connected with the conservation of the natural resources of the State.

The Commission has the honor to acknowledge the many suggestions and criticisms which it has received from the public, and to express its appreciation of the interest which the people of the State have taken in its work. It also wishes to express its appreciation of the many suggestions and criticisms which it has received from the various State departments and from the various scientific societies.
