

The map displays the Gulf of Mexico and its surrounding areas, including the Gulf of California, the Gulf of the Americas, and the Gulf of the Caribbean. It features a grid system with latitude and longitude coordinates. Various shipping lanes and ports are marked, along with numerous vessels labeled with names and numbers. Key locations include New Orleans, Houston, and San Antonio. A legend in the bottom right corner provides information on the symbols used for different types of vessels and shipping lanes.

RECEIVED

NOV 21 1957

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
WASHINGTON, D. C.