

from 12,000 feet to 5100 feet with GR log to the surface, and FDC, DLL, GR, and RXO logs of the lower portion of the hole.

No cores are planned.

9. ABNORMAL PRESSURES, TEMPERATURES OR HYDROGEN SULFIDE GAS:

Abnormal pressures may be present in the Atoka and Morrow formations.

10. ANTICIPATED STARTING DATE:

It is planned that drilling operations will commence about February 1, 1980, with drilling and completion operations lasting about 90 days.