MISCELLANEOUS REPORTS ON WELLS

The following reports were received from the various wells in the State of Texas during the year 1911. The reports are arranged in alphabetical order of the names of the wells. The reports are of various lengths and contain information of varying interest. Some of the reports are of great value and should be carefully studied. Others are of less value and may be of interest only to the owner of the well. The reports are arranged in alphabetical order of the names of the wells.
