REPORT ON THE PROGRESS OF THE WORK

The work of the Committee during the year 1910 has been devoted to the study of the various questions connected with the administration of the public lands. The Committee has held several public hearings and has received many suggestions from the public. It has also conducted extensive research into the various problems connected with the management of the public lands.

The Committee has found that the present system of administration of the public lands is in many respects inefficient and wasteful. It has therefore proposed a number of reforms which it believes will result in a more efficient and economical management of the public lands. These reforms include the reorganization of the various bureaus which are now under the control of different departments, the creation of a new department of the interior, and the establishment of a new system of land management.

The Committee believes that these reforms are essential for the proper management of the public lands. It therefore urges the adoption of these reforms by the Congress and the President.
