HOBBES' CONSTITUTIONAL THEORY
CONSTITUTIONAL THEORY

1. The state of nature is a state of war of every man against every man.

2. In this state, there is no law, no justice, no equity.

3. The life of man is solitary, poor, nasty, brutish, and short.

4. To escape this state, men agree to form a civil society.

5. They transfer their natural rights to a sovereign power.

6. This sovereign power is the source of all laws and justice.

7. The sovereign is absolute and cannot be overthrown.
