THEORY OF THE EARTH

CHAPTER I. OF THE ORIGIN OF THE EARTH.

THE first question which presents itself to the mind, is, what was the origin of the earth? and the answer to this question is, that it was created by the power of God, out of nothing, at the beginning of time.

The second question is, what was the state of the earth at the beginning? and the answer to this question is, that it was a dark, void, and empty space, without form, and without void.

The third question is, how did the earth come into its present state? and the answer to this question is, that it was created by the power of God, out of nothing, at the beginning of time, and it has since remained in its present state, until the present time.

The fourth question is, what is the nature of the earth? and the answer to this question is, that it is a solid, and impenetrable body, which is composed of various materials, and is capable of supporting various kinds of life.

The fifth question is, what is the cause of the various changes which take place on the surface of the earth? and the answer to this question is, that they are caused by the power of God, who is the author of all life, and the cause of all motion.

The sixth question is, what is the cause of the various diseases which afflict mankind? and the answer to this question is, that they are caused by the power of God, who is the author of all life, and the cause of all motion.

The seventh question is, what is the cause of the various wars which afflict mankind? and the answer to this question is, that they are caused by the power of God, who is the author of all life, and the cause of all motion.

The eighth question is, what is the cause of the various calamities which afflict mankind? and the answer to this question is, that they are caused by the power of God, who is the author of all life, and the cause of all motion.

The ninth question is, what is the cause of the various diseases which afflict mankind? and the answer to this question is, that they are caused by the power of God, who is the author of all life, and the cause of all motion.

The tenth question is, what is the cause of the various calamities which afflict mankind? and the answer to this question is, that they are caused by the power of God, who is the author of all life, and the cause of all motion.

The eleventh question is, what is the cause of the various diseases which afflict mankind? and the answer to this question is, that they are caused by the power of God, who is the author of all life, and the cause of all motion.

The twelfth question is, what is the cause of the various calamities which afflict mankind? and the answer to this question is, that they are caused by the power of God, who is the author of all life, and the cause of all motion.
