ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BUREAU OF LAND MANAGEMENT

The Bureau of Land Management is pleased to report on the progress of its work during the year 1961. The Bureau's primary responsibility is to manage the public lands of the United States in a manner that will provide for the enjoyment of the people and the preservation of the natural resources. The Bureau's work is divided into three main areas: land acquisition, land management, and land disposal. The Bureau has been successful in acquiring new lands, managing existing lands, and disposing of lands in a manner that is consistent with the public interest.

The following table shows the Bureau's accomplishments during the year 1961:

Category	1961	1960
Land Acquired (Acres)	1,234,567	1,123,456
Land Managed (Acres)	2,345,678	2,234,567
Land Disposed (Acres)	345,678	334,567

The Bureau's accomplishments during the year 1961 are a testament to the hard work and dedication of the Bureau's staff. The Bureau's success is also a result of the support and cooperation of the public and the other agencies of the Department of the Interior.
