REPORT OF THE COMMISSIONER OF THE GENERAL LAND OFFICE
FOR THE YEAR 1890
PART II. THE LANDS OF THE UNITED STATES
IN THE TERRITORY OF ARIZONA

The following is a list of the lands of the United States in the Territory of Arizona, as reported by the Commissioner of the General Land Office for the year 1890. The lands are classified according to their location and the date of their acquisition.

The lands are divided into two classes: (1) Lands acquired by the United States prior to 1848, and (2) Lands acquired by the United States after 1848. The first class includes lands acquired by the United States from Mexico in 1848, and lands acquired by the United States from Spain in 1802. The second class includes lands acquired by the United States from Mexico in 1848, and lands acquired by the United States from Spain in 1802.

The lands are further divided into three classes: (1) Lands acquired by the United States prior to 1848, (2) Lands acquired by the United States after 1848, and (3) Lands acquired by the United States after 1848. The first class includes lands acquired by the United States from Mexico in 1848, and lands acquired by the United States from Spain in 1802. The second class includes lands acquired by the United States from Mexico in 1848, and lands acquired by the United States from Spain in 1802.
