

May 9, 1955

5. That the proposed non-standard gas proration unit may reasonably be presumed to be productive of gas.

6. That all operators with a 1500 ft. radius of the Smith #3 as herein listed have been notified by registered mail and have received a copy of this application.

7. The Smith #3 is presently assigned an 80-acre gas proration unit in the Jalmat Pool.

8. Therefore the undersigned applicant, Julian E. Simon, requests that through the provisions of Rule 5, Order R-520, the Oil Conservation Commission approve the subject non-standard proration unit as proposed in this application.

Yours very truly

Julian E. Simon

JES/c

cc: Southern California Petroleum Corporation
Box 708, Midland, Texas
cc: Three States Natural Gas Co., 1700 Corrigan Tower, Dallas, Texas
cc: Anderson-Prichard Oil Corporation
1000 Liberty Bank Bldg.,
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

The first part of the report deals with the general situation of the country and the progress of the work. It is followed by a detailed account of the work done during the year, and a summary of the results. The report is divided into two main parts, the first of which deals with the general situation of the country and the progress of the work, and the second of which deals with the detailed account of the work done during the year, and a summary of the results.

The second part of the report deals with the detailed account of the work done during the year, and a summary of the results. It is divided into two main parts, the first of which deals with the general situation of the country and the progress of the work, and the second of which deals with the detailed account of the work done during the year, and a summary of the results.

The third part of the report deals with the detailed account of the work done during the year, and a summary of the results. It is divided into two main parts, the first of which deals with the general situation of the country and the progress of the work, and the second of which deals with the detailed account of the work done during the year, and a summary of the results.