

ANDERSON-PRICHARD OIL CORPORATION

REFINERIES: CYRIL, OKLA. AND COLORADO, TEXAS

GENERAL OFFICES

OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA.

August 27th, 1937

Oil Conservation Commission
Santa Fe, New Mexico

Gentlemen:

Attention: Mr. Carl B. Livingston

In re: Ajax-APOC-Lanshart #1,
NW $\frac{1}{4}$ SW $\frac{1}{4}$ - 21 - 25S- 37E, Lea County, New Mexico.

Under date of August 16th we advised you that we expected to be in position to send you completed drilling bond in connection with the above by the 18th or 19th.

We are being unavoidably delayed, however, in getting this bond completed on account of the absence of the executive officers of Anderson-Prichard Oil Corporation who are away on vacation. Our President is expected back on September 1st, and just as soon as he arrives, we will promptly secure his signature and will then forward the completed bond to you.

We regret this delay and hope that it is not causing you serious inconvenience.

Yours very truly,

Land Department.

EHWahl:MEG

cc - Oil Conservation Commission
Hobbs, New Mexico

ANDERSON-PRIESTMAN OIL CORPORATION

REFINERIES OPERATING IN TEXAS AND OKLAHOMA

CENTRAL OFFICES

OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA.

January 1, 1937

The Anderson-Priestman Oil Corporation
c/o J. B. Priestman, President

Attention: Mr. J. B. Priestman

Dear Sir:

Re: Anderson-Priestman Oil Corporation
c/o J. B. Priestman, President
c/o J. B. Priestman, President
c/o J. B. Priestman, President

Under date of August 10, 1936 we advised you that we expected to be in position to send you completed drilling bond in connection with the above by the 15th of 1936.

We are being unavoidably delayed, however, in getting this bond completed on account of the absence of the executive officers of Anderson-Priestman Oil Corporation who are away on vacation. Our President is expected back on September 1st, and just as soon as he arrives, we will promptly secure his signature and will then forward the completed bond to you.

We regret this delay and hope that it is not causing any serious inconvenience.

Yours very truly,

J. B. Priestman, President

J. B. Priestman

The Anderson-Priestman Oil Corporation
c/o J. B. Priestman, President
c/o J. B. Priestman, President
c/o J. B. Priestman, President