

GENERAL OFFICE
Box 2040
TULSA, OKLA. 74102

HOBBS OFFICE D.C.C.

AMERADA PETROLEUM CORPORATION

Box 668
HOBBS, NEW MEXICO 88240

JUN 6 12 45 AM '69

June 3, 1969

New Mexico Oil Conservation Commission
P. O. Box 1980
Hobbs, New Mexico

Gentlemen:

The following is a list of deviation surveys run on Amerada Petroleum Corporation's L. M. W. U. #105, located 1690' FNL and 2020' FWL, Section 28, T-24-S, R-37-E, Unit Letter "F", Lea County, New Mexico.

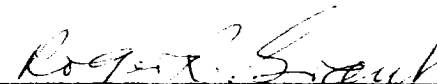

250'	1/2 degree
528'	3/4 degree
746'	1/2 degree
1005'	3/4 degree
1284'	3/4 degree
1771'	3/4 degree
2294'	1-1/4 degrees
2721'	2 degrees
2873'	1-3/4 degrees
3110'	1-1/4 degrees
3278'	1-1/4 degrees
3430'	1-1/4 degrees
3580'	3/4 degrees
3680'	3/4 degrees
3710'	3/4 degrees

I hereby affirm that the above information is true and complete to the best of my knowledge.

AMERADA PETROLEUM CORPORATION

G. O. Webb
District Superintendent

Subscribed and sworn to before me this the 3rd day of June,
AD, 1969.

Notary Public in and for the County of Lea.

My Commission Expires January 28, 1971.

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1861. It is a very important document, as it sets out the President's policy for the new year. The President states that he is pleased to see the Congress assembled, and that he is confident that the country is in a good position to meet the challenges of the future. He also mentions the recent election of Abraham Lincoln as President, and expresses his confidence in the new administration.

2. The second part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Treasury, dated January 1, 1861. It provides a detailed account of the financial state of the country at the beginning of the year. The report shows that the country is in a sound financial position, with a strong and stable currency. It also mentions the recent increase in the national debt, and expresses confidence that the government will be able to manage the debt effectively.

3. The third part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Interior, dated January 1, 1861. It provides a detailed account of the state of the country's natural resources, including land, minerals, and wildlife. The report shows that the country has a vast and rich natural resource base, and that the government is committed to managing these resources in a sustainable and responsible manner.

4. The fourth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Navy, dated January 1, 1861. It provides a detailed account of the state of the country's naval forces, including the number of ships, the size of the fleet, and the readiness of the personnel. The report shows that the country has a strong and modern naval force, and that the government is committed to maintaining the highest standards of readiness and efficiency.

5. The fifth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the War, dated January 1, 1861. It provides a detailed account of the state of the country's military forces, including the number of troops, the size of the army, and the readiness of the personnel. The report shows that the country has a strong and modern military force, and that the government is committed to maintaining the highest standards of readiness and efficiency.

6. The sixth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the State, dated January 1, 1861. It provides a detailed account of the state of the country's foreign relations, including the status of diplomatic relations with other countries, and the results of international negotiations. The report shows that the country has a strong and active foreign policy, and that the government is committed to promoting peace and stability in the world.

7. The seventh part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Education, dated January 1, 1861. It provides a detailed account of the state of the country's educational system, including the number of schools, the quality of the education, and the results of national examinations. The report shows that the country has a strong and modern educational system, and that the government is committed to promoting the highest standards of education.

8. The eighth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Agriculture, dated January 1, 1861. It provides a detailed account of the state of the country's agricultural sector, including the production of crops, the health of the livestock, and the results of national surveys. The report shows that the country has a strong and productive agricultural sector, and that the government is committed to promoting the highest standards of agricultural production.

9. The ninth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Commerce, dated January 1, 1861. It provides a detailed account of the state of the country's commercial sector, including the volume of trade, the health of the economy, and the results of national surveys. The report shows that the country has a strong and growing commercial sector, and that the government is committed to promoting the highest standards of commercial activity.

10. The tenth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Public Works, dated January 1, 1861. It provides a detailed account of the state of the country's public works, including the construction of roads, bridges, and other infrastructure. The report shows that the country has a strong and modern public works sector, and that the government is committed to promoting the highest standards of public works construction.