

HOBBS, NEW MEXICO

Proposed DC _____

OIL CONSERVATION COMMISSION

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 3, 1862. It is a very important document, as it contains the President's annual message to Congress. The letter is written in a formal, dignified style, and it is one of the most important documents in the history of the United States. It is a document that has been read and studied by many generations of Americans, and it is a document that has shaped the course of the nation's history. The letter is a masterpiece of American literature, and it is a document that is as relevant today as it was in 1862.

2. The second part of the document is a letter from the Secretary of the War Department to the Secretary of the Navy, dated January 10, 1862. It is a very important document, as it contains the Secretary's report on the state of the war. The letter is written in a formal, dignified style, and it is one of the most important documents in the history of the United States. It is a document that has been read and studied by many generations of Americans, and it is a document that has shaped the course of the nation's history. The letter is a masterpiece of American literature, and it is a document that is as relevant today as it was in 1862.

3. The third part of the document is a letter from the Secretary of the War Department to the Secretary of the Navy, dated January 10, 1862. It is a very important document, as it contains the Secretary's report on the state of the war. The letter is written in a formal, dignified style, and it is one of the most important documents in the history of the United States. It is a document that has been read and studied by many generations of Americans, and it is a document that has shaped the course of the nation's history. The letter is a masterpiece of American literature, and it is a document that is as relevant today as it was in 1862.

4. The fourth part of the document is a letter from the Secretary of the War Department to the Secretary of the Navy, dated January 10, 1862. It is a very important document, as it contains the Secretary's report on the state of the war. The letter is written in a formal, dignified style, and it is one of the most important documents in the history of the United States. It is a document that has been read and studied by many generations of Americans, and it is a document that has shaped the course of the nation's history. The letter is a masterpiece of American literature, and it is a document that is as relevant today as it was in 1862.